

CHÂTEAU HAUT-BAGES LIBÉRAL

GRAND CRU CLASSÉ EN 1855

PAUILLAC

Owner: Claire Villars Lurton

The Libéral family founded the estate in the 18th century. Generation after generation, they succeeded in forming a vineyard with the best soils of Pauillac. Château Haut-Bages Libéral was included among the fifth growths in 1855. Since the arrival of the Villars family in 1983, Haut-Bages Libéral has gradually recovered its formal glory.

Château Haut-Bages Libéral has 30 hectares of vines overlooking the Gironde River. Half of this area, located right next to Château Latour, features gravel on limestone and clay, and the other part, on the plateau of Bages, has deep gravels soil.

Today, Claire Villars Lurton is the owner of Château haut-Bages Libéral. She modernised the winemaking facilities and introduced new, environmentally-friendly methods. She is committed to making the most of the terroir thanks to a very quality-oriented approach devoted to restoring the estate's prestige.
