

CHÂTEAU LARMANDE

GRAND CRU CLASSÉ

SAINT-ÉMILION GRAND CRU

Owner: Groupe AG2R La Mondiale

Located 1,200 metres from the medieval village of Saint-Émilion, Château Larmande is one of the oldest estates in the appellation. The local archives contain references going as far back as 1585.

Larmande now has a very modern cellar with small vats making it possible to fine-tune winemaking by fermenting grapes on a plot-by-plot basis.

Thanks to a subtle combination of age-old methods and state-of-the-art technology, Larmande makes superb wine in every vintage.

Gentle, traditional-style fermentation retains fresh, fruity aromas and leads to round, attractive wines that reflect the finesse of the terroir.

Larmande is particularly well-balanced, delicate wine, with a great deal of elegance.
