

CHÂTEAU LARRIVET HAUT-BRION

PESSAC-LÉOGNAN

Owner: Philippe Gervoson

Château Larrivet Haut-Brion was cited as one of the leading wines in the commune of Léognan as early as 1840. The Gervoson family acquired the estate in 1987 and have worked hard ever since to restore this wine's illustrious reputation.

Larrivet Haut-Brion is an immensely charming 100-hectare property. The superb 19th century château also has thirteen hectares of attractive grounds. The vines grow on high and medium-size rises of Garonne gravel. The estate also features woods and meadows.

An ambitious modernisation programme in the cellar (pneumatic winepress using inert gas, optical sorting of grapes, etc.) and vineyard (detailed soil survey for improved plot-by-plot management) has resulted in wines reputed for their elegance and character.

Representing the upcoming generation of her family, Émilie Gervoson tirelessly promotes Château Larrivet Haut-Brion around the world.
