

CHÂTEAU SIGALAS RABAUD

PREMIER GRAND CRU CLASSÉ EN 1855

SAUTERNES

The configuration of Domaine de Rabaud, created in 1660, changed significantly in 1903 when Monsieur de Sigalas combined various vineyard plots with excellent sun exposure and gravelly soil from among those purchased by his father forty years beforehand. These fourteen hectares formed a jewel of a vineyard, the smallest of the first growths in the 1855 classification.

Six generations later, the grandchildren of the last representative of the older branch of the Sigalas family, Marquise de Lambert des Granges, now look after viticulture and winemaking with the same passion.

They produce a fine, fresh, elegant Sauternes whose structure is conferred by 85% Sémillon and charm by 15% Sauvignon Blanc. Sigalas-Rabaud is subtle and understated, a true connoisseur's wine that is enjoyable when young thanks to a bouquet of lime blossom and white fruit, although it is frequently able to age for over a century.

The second wine, Lieutenant de Sigalas, is the first growth's "little brother," made after a strict selection. The estate also produces an aromatic dry white wine, La Demoiselle de Sigalas. All the wines reflect a unique terroir.
